ARGENTINA: Trials of Former Military Leaders. (U)

~~(C/NF)~~ Newly inaugurated President Raul Alfonsin's quick action in ordering former top military leaders to stand trial for human rights abuses has, so far, not sparked serious negative reaction in the armed forces.

(U) Alfonsin ordered military courts-martial for the following nine members who served between 1976 and 1982 in the ruling Junta.

OFFICERS ARRAIGNED

Gen Jorge Videla	ex-President 1976-81
Gen Roberto Viola	ex-President 1981
Gen Leopoldo Galtieri	ex-President 1981-82
BGen Basilio Lami-Dozo	ex-Air Force Commander
ADM Jorge Anaya	ex-Navy Commander
ADM Armando Lambruschini	ex-Navy Commander
BGen Omar Graffigna	ex-Air Force Commander
ADM Emilio Massera	ex-Navy Commander
BGen Orlando Agosti	ex-Air Force Commander

COMMENT: ~~(C/NF)~~ Alfonsin was able to take this action without fear of serious military repercussions largely because it was anticipated. Potential opposition elements within the military are currently too disorganized to mount significant objection. Most officers appear pleased with the new president's plan to adopt tough antisubversive measures. The continuation of these feelings probably depends on whether the new judicial proceedings uncover evidence that will result in new indictments against lower ranking members of the officer corps. ~~(DECL OADR)~~
